2022-08-24 The core of this book was created out of desperation. I wanted to talk to God about my trials and tribulations but didn't know how or what to say. In addition, I thought prayers had to be long and drawn out. That is so not the case! Thank God I was open to correction and coaching. This book is a product of the renewal of the mind and thought process. This book consists of short prayers to help you push through times of need. There are quotes and writing responses built in the book to provoke thinking, new revelations, and understandings of scriptures.
